1. This name was represented, in the early days of the Colony, as shown by the land patents. Due to the ^{destruction} ~~loss~~ of the records of King & Queen County and of New Kent from which it was formed it is impossible to trace the early generations of the family. In 1759, a Thomas Watts of St Stephen Parish, King & Queen County bought land in Southfarcham Parish, Essex County. He lived only a few years after the removal to this County dying in the year 1767. He willed the land in King and Queen County which he had inherited from his father and since a Thomas Watts is listed on the 1704 Tithable list for the County it is reasonable to assume he was the son of this earlier Thomas. He married Mary Kauffman as proven from his will, which names, son John, son William (whom he left land in Henric County) son Kauffman, son Thomas, daughter Mary, daughter Betty Gresham, wife Mary.
